Josh Billings, in describing the horse fair of the Bifningwille Agricultural Society, says: There was ten yoke or oxen on the ground, hesides several yoke or sheep, and a pile of currols, and some wested work, but they didn't seem to attract entry sympathy. The people hanker for pure agricultural hoss-trots.

CLERICAL WIR.—The World has a religious reporter who is always careful to state that such and such a clergyman "ascended the pulpit" and then preached. That is the way they generally do. It remlads one of the statement that Rowland Hill made to a course preacher.

"There was one passage you indulged this morning which I greatly admired I?

"What was that I" inquired the aspiring searching. expounder.
The pussage from the pulpit to the door," was the reply. A good story is told of two young ladies who were visiting some friends in the east-crit part of Maine. One day a young gent took them out to side. Of course they must make a display of their mril knowledge, discussing rudubly upon various objects as they rode along. Coming in sight of a field in which some grain was in the bunch and correctly with they caps, one excelsined: "O, what a tunny graveyard!" to which the other responded: "O, you fool, that's nothing but a field of sheep!"

A young man present said to Mr. Lincoln, "I mu taller than you."—"This is very easily settled," said Mr. Lincoln; "stand up here, back to back, and we will see." The young man straightened himself up to bis full stature, and Mr. Lincoln arose from his chair slowly; and not showing his full length, the young man said, "I thought I was the tailest." Baid Mr. Lincoln, "There is a good deal of come out in me," and straightening himself out to his full length, "came out" full two inches taller than the young man. In a higher seme, says Mr. Vace, there was "a good deal of come out" in Mr. Lincoln.

NATURALIZED CITIZENS. An animated debate look place in the Senate on Thursday on a polition from Ohio, presented by Mr. Sherman, asking that, in view of recent occurrences aboard, action should be taken by the government to profor sols done in this country. Mr. Conhess, of California, himself a naturalized a citized took the greater and apparently the the most earnest part in the discussion.

Ite said he did not know by what mode they could, in their lagislative capacity, protect the tights of American chizens traveling abroad. Every right, bowever, that year attached to them at home belonged equally to all titizens abroad, and should be protected by the the entire force of government; but those rights should be guarded by the executive. Though the President had called attention to the subject in his Message, he was poy clothed with supple ower upon this subject. Gitzens of the United States, who covertly or openly disturb the peace of foreign nations, must of copyse take the responsibility of their acts, but that the rights of guilless American chitzens should be interfreed with abroad, was a shaule and a seandal. No one doubted the power of the United States to protect its citizens but this tite rights of guilless and only the protect its citizens but the content of the proversion of the United States to protect its citizens but the content of the proversion of the United States to protect its citizens but the content of the proversion of the United States to protect its citizens but the content of the proversion of the United States to protect its citizens but the content of the proversion of the United States to protect its citizens of the proversion of the United States to protect its citizens of the proversion of the United States to protect its citizens of the proversion of the United States to protect its citizens of the proversion of the protect of the proversion of the pr was a shame and a scandal. No one doubted the power of the United States to protect its citizens in all the rights common to and inherent in them. He hoped the committee on foreign relations would give this matter at least a divided attention, in addition to the acquisition of foreign teritory by the State Department, that the voteo of the mation would be heard abroad, through its representatives. He begged the Chairman of the Committee on Poreign Itelations (Mr. Sumner) would not pass by this subject nor fail to come up to the measure of its importance. Mr. Sherman look the same side, refer ing to instances of recent occurrence and saying that difficulties had arisen with all the German States, arising from the claim that a subject cannot cast off his allegiance to his native country.

Mr. Conkling said that foreign powers took cognizance of acts done by American citizens not punishable by our laws, and over which they had no right of jurisdiction. Mr. Johnson, of Maryland, saw no escape from war except by negotiation, if foreign governments insist on their dectrine of natural allegiance. Mr. Sumner intimated that England is beginning to relax the former views on this subject. Other Senators spoke, and were unautmons in the American yiew of allegiance, and the necessity of taking action that will prevent the arrest of naturalized citizens for acts done in this country and not regarded as crimes by our laws; and their being compelled to serve in the armiesof their native countries after they become citizens of the United States.

Gour Clergy and the Nation,"

The Rev. Somuel Osgood, D. D., com municates an article to the New York Citizen under this litle, from which we take the following extract: In reviewing the intellectual history of our clergy for nearly a century, we note one very marked change in themselves and their relation to the people. The popular preachers were once men of positive precedent who went for the letter of the book or the creed, and who had little regard for the free and what seemed to them the during spirit of the age. Ther were afraid of reason, and not overfond of the authority of conscience as compared with the authoritative letter. No preacher was very popular except such as rested in the old fushioned standards .-Things have now changed considerably and all our most marked preachers have much of the spirit of the nineteenth century, and appeal freely to reason, conscience and the human breast, and do not think that all light and life are shut up in the old record and erceds,

Paraguay,

For more than three years the little Republic of Paraguay has been fighting against Brazil, Uruguny, and the Argentine Confederation. Never did a people contend for to long time, against greater olds than the Paraguayans in this struggle, and yet the are now in a fair way of ultimate triumph. After many battles, in which successes and reverses were about equally balanced, they have obtained a signal victory, and one which is likely to be decisive. The alies have lately given signs of discouragement, and the last backed may lead them to abandon the effort to subjugate Paraguay, and thus lead to the peace so much needed by all the belligerents.

Atchison, Kansas, came very near being blown up last week. It seems that two thousand pounds of powder had been stored on the second floor of a warehouse. The floor upon which the powder was stored caught fire from a slave in the slory below, and the flames got under good headway within a few feet of the powder before they were discovered. The fire was extinguished happily, by the heroism of a man, who entered the room with mater.

The Philadelphia North American advises manufacturers not to stop operations on account of the depression in business, arguing that if the American manufacture ceases, the foreign works never do, and the forcing of immense quantities of foreign goods on the American markets at any rices that can be obtained, laknown to be the regular policy of our British rivals.

NATURAL CITIZENS.—The rights of our naturalized citizens was the subject of an interesting debate in the Sensie during which it was strongly intimated that nego tiations were pending by which it was confidently anticipated that England would abandon her doctrines of allegiance, denying to her subjects the right of expatriation, and apopt the American idea. Mr. Summer -said, since England had sanctioned and encouraged emigration her doctrine of, a legiance was absurd, and Senator Johnson added, "If she perseveres in maintaining buy present doctrine it may be come a jus CHUSE for war."

nive been frequently convulsed by revolutions and imporerished by wars, the Republic of Elberia, in West Affice, has steadily prospered. Its institutions are modeled after those of the United States -Education and religion have been the solid foundation stones of the Republic, In 1620 tect naturalized citizens abroad from arrest the first band of humble emigrants sailed for Africa, from New York, in the Elizabeth. In the short space of twenty-seven years, on the 26th of July, 1817, the Republic of IA. beria entered the family of hallons. Their first President, Joseph J. Roberts, the George Washington of Liberia, served the common wealth for eight years, having been elected four times. The second President, Stephen A. Bonson, was elected President four times, and served eight years. The third President, Daniel B. Warner, has been in office four years, having been twice elected. The Republic is composed of four districts or counties, Montserrado, Grand Basso, Sinow and Maryland, each represented by two Senators and by members of the House of Representatives. A college has been established at Monrovia with President and Prolessors. More than fifty churches have been established, connected with the Baptist, Methodiat, Presbyterlan, Congregational, Episcopalian and Latheran denominations. Treaties have been made with Great Britain, France, Prussia, Brazil and all the principal nations. With the untive tribes, adjacent to the Republic, and several within the jurisdiction of the Republic, treaties have been made. The slave traffic has been completely broken up for alx hundred miles. Thousands of recaptured slaves, rescued by American yeasels of war have been elvelized. The star of Liberia, is the norning star rising on Africa's dark night. A steady stream of emigration is bearing thousands to the shores of Liberia. Twelve hundred freedmen have gone in one year, Funds are needed for this great and good work. Hev. Religion in South America.

There are increasing indications that the South American republics will before many years, separate the church from the gov eroment. There is no extraordinary de mand for Protestant institutions. Already the American Tract Society is receiving requests for publications in numbers greater than can be supplied with present resources In the cities of Chile the public have ceased o enferce laws against Protestant books. The Mayor of Valparaiso refused to close of Protestant chapet at the demand of the Ro man Catholica. In Buenos Ayres the government is establishing Sunday schools, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction is using his influence to extend the sale of Protestant publications. There is a wide demand for them, although the tendency of the people is not toward Protest. antism, but to infidelity outright. The same state of things exists in Poru and Now Gri-

THE ASSASSINATION PLOT. -- A communication from the State department was sent to Congress Thursday relative to the visit of one George H. Sharpe to Europa, under the orders of that Department, to necertain whether any citizens of the United States in last six months. This indicates that on that quarter, other than those who have heretofore been suspected, are charged with having been concerned in the assassination of President Lincoln and the attempted aseassigntion of the Secretary of State. Especial reference seems to have been had to the identification of persons connected with Surratt. The conclusion reached was that no legal or reasonable proof exists of the participation of any persons in Europe who were former citizens of the United States. such as to call for the actum of this Govnoment.

An attempt was made to assassinate Gen. Alatorre late Military Governor of Vera-Cruz, when leaving the theatre at Jalapa during the disturbance that cusued some parties shouled vivas in hour of Posfirtio Diaz, proclaiming him President of Mexico.

The idea of the movers was to imnedlately demand the enforcement of a loan of $500,000 to support the cause. The ring-leader was Col. Mountis, an eximperialist officer, who passed over to Gen. Alatorre's camp during the singe of Jalaps, and attempted to reduce the garrison, but was deterred by a corporal. Nearly all political prisoners have been liberated

The judiciary question before the Now-York Constitutional Cenvention has proba bly been finally settled now by the rejection of the life tenure principle, and the substitution of a provision giving the Chief Justice and six Associate Judges of the Court of Appeals fourteen years of office, and making them inteligible for a re-election. It is also provided that no one of the Judges elected shall hold office longer than the first day of January next after his sevenlictlb birth day.

The treasury building at Washington, it is said, when completed, will have cost nearly 5,000,000, and will be the finest execulive edifice in the world. The greater portion of it is built of Maine granite, and it is proposed to repaild the remainder with the same material, as the porous sandstone of which it is constructed to disintegrating rap-

Incoron. -- A young gentleman named John Webb, who recently graduated, after John Webb, who recently graduated, after mearly two years study, at the college in Providence, took up his residence in this city, and entered into husiness. Our community with absence that the city and city an munity, with characteristic benevolence, extended to him a kind reception, so that bls pecuntary prospects became quite flattering. The return of gratitude upon the past of Mr Webb, however, was not partieularly exemplary,

We understand, from several sources, that Webb called at different houses in our city, soliciting and obtaining glits of money, say lug he was in the express business, that his horse had died, and he wished to obtain another. To further excite aympathy, he said he had been wounded in the bip in hattle, while in the union army; and with the aid of a cane, and many affectations of lameness, he acted the character of a wounded veteran with considerable skill.

It is on'y proper to say, however, that the said Webb is an imposter; that the college where he studied in Providence was not that on the hill known as Brown Unversity, but the one back of the Cove popularly called the State's Prison, to which he was commit led for theft; that he owned no horse; that he was not wounded in battle, nor wounded at all; and that his whole story was a fabricalion, > TEMPERANCE SEEMON -The friends of Temperance will bear in mind the appointment of a public service to morrow evening, in behalf of that cause. At the request is the Sons and Good Templars, Rev. D. A. Whedon will preach on the subject in the Marlboro Street Church at 7 o'clock. Thi s a movement in the right direction and w have no doubt that all who hear the dis course will be served with a rich treat, a-Mr. Whedon is not accustomed to disc s such subjects in a hackneyed or superficimanner.

RETURNED .-- We hear that Mr. T. H. B Taylor, whose departure from Newport some weeks since, efficited considerable comment, has returned and taken rooms at the Perry House, where he is receiving calls from his friends.

TEMPERAECE LECTURE - Roy. Dr. Upham informs us that Ebenezer Bowman, Esq., of Taunton, Mass, will lecture on Temperance at the Thames Street Methodist Episcopal Church on Thursday evening next (Dec. 26th,) at seven and a half c'clock. Dr. Uphain would request the pastors of the city churches to name this to their congregations on the next Sabbath.

Dividence The Old Colony and Newport Railroad Company has declared a dividend of three per cent. The net carnings of the road have been four per cent, for the per cent, has been retained for contingent expenses, - an evidence of prudent manage ment, as well as good business.

We are requested to ask the Good 'Com plars and the Sons of Temperance, with their friends, to assemble at Templar Hall on Sunday evening, at 6) o'clock, to go thence in a body to the Marlhoro' Street Church where Rev. Mr. Whedon will delive er a discourse before the two societies,

They were so badly for me, and disabled at the time of rescue that they had to be taken on board the ship by ropes, having been ten days on the wreek, four days without fire or water, and their provisions destroyed by the sea.

Washington Evening Disputches.

In the Senate to-day Mr. Howard presented a petition from citizens of Michigan setting forth that the pension laws make provision only for discharged soldiers of the regular army, and all who have imperilled their lives in defence of the country being equally meritorious they ask an amendmen to the pension laws and act for relief of disabled soldiers so as to apply to soldiers honorably discharged, disabled from whitever cause, whether regulars or volunteers .-He asked for the petition the favorable at tention of the Committee on Pensions to which it was referred.

Mr. Summer presented a petition from lorty presidents and professors of colleges, praying for the removal of the fifteen per cent, duty on philosophical apparetus as a burdensome tax on education, and detrimental to American science. He hoped the Chairman of the Committee on Finance would give the matter his best attention. Several pelitions for possions and for relief were presented and referred.

The explanation of the disappearance of Col. Parker is given by himself to the effect that he was drugged into sleep at an out-ofthe way hetel by an Indian of the Six Nxtion tribe, of which Col. Parker la Chlef. until after the duy appointed for the wed ding. The tribe want him to marry one of their Indian girls. The affair is being investigated by Gen. Grant, to the and that Parker may establish bis blamelessuces or else be dismissed from his staff in disgrace.
